

CROSSWALK in the city

Urban Ministries Convention

a virtual event, September 16-18, 2021

Earlybird registration ends August 16, 2021: nwadvent.st/urban2021

Cleveland Houser
Founder, Don't Follow Me

Juleun Johnson
Advent Health

Jaime Kowlessar
Pastor, City Temple

Lander Mitchell
Mental Health Therapist

Derek Lane
Pastor, Seattle

Tiffany Brown
Urban Evangelist

Michael Brown
Associate Director, PSI

North Pacific Union of Seventh-day Adventists
cosponsors: North American Division and General Conference

This convention will help you serve an influence your community regardless of your locale in a rural or urban setting.

Spotlight:

Innovative, successful and sustainable ministries operated by Adventist Churches in the urban context.

Highlight:

Principles and practices of community engagement that address the needs of people and communities in the world today.

Insight:

From Seattle to Skagway, Portland to Pioneer Junction, the Northwest is impacted by the urban mindset. How do we, as Seventh-day Adventist Christians, bring our mission alive in that context?

The NPUC Urban Ministries Convention is a virtual experience where you'll unpack proven principles, Biblical guidelines, and best practices for impacting the holistic needs in the Northwest.

Ministry Tracks Include:

- Adventist Community Services
- Children's Ministry
- Conscience & Social Justice
- Disaster Response
- Fundraising
- Health Ministry
- Prison Ministry
- Refugee & Immigration
- Thrift Store Ministry
- Urban Ministry

Inspiration:

"That you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God."
Colossians 1:9-10.

Early registration ends Aug. 16, 2021 :: Regular registration ends Sep. 18, 2021
nwadvent.st/urban2021